

Predict and Discuss

Predict and discuss is a fun speaking activity which encourages students to speak in Will Future.

Instructions:

1. Recap the will future with your students.
2. Take Note! A few cards include Will Future Perfect. This could be a good moment to introduce your students to the idea of Will Future Perfect or follow up on it. If you really want to avoid the topic from a particular lesson just pick the cards with Will Future Perfect out.
3. Put students into pairs or groups and ask them to choose from the options a, b or c and discuss them further with their partner or group,
4. Listen to the students speak freely and take notes of good uses of language and mistakes which can be improved on. At the end of the class leave some time to take the students' attention to the board and discuss some of the great phrases or vocabulary they used. Additionally, bring up some examples of sentences which were brought up and can be improved on. Ask the students to correct the mistakes themselves.
