4. Michael is having a business lunch with a customer from France tomorrow afternoon. Read the dialogue below and answer the following questions:

Waiter: Hello, this is the Harvey Food club.

Michael: Hello, I would like to make a reservation please.

Waiter: Yes, of course. When would you like the reservation for?

Michael: I would like the reservation for tomorrow at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Waiter: OK, one moment Sir... we are usually very busy at this time. How many people would you like the table for?

Michael: Two people.

Waiter: Mhmm... Is half past one in the afternoon ok for you? We are fully booked at 1 o'clock.

Michael: Yes, half past one is fine.

Waiter: Perfect! So, a table for two, tomorrow at half past one in the afternoon.

Michael: Yes, thanks.

Waiter: Thank you and see you tomorrow. Bye!

Michael: Bye!

Waiter: Hello, welcome to Harvey Food Club.
 Michael: Hello, we have a table for two reserved under the name Michael Rose.
 Waiter: One moment... yes, I see you here. Follow me and I will take you to your table.
 Michael: Thank you.

-----
 Waiter: Hello, are you ready to order.
 Michael: Yes, I am. How about you Jean?
 Jean: Yes, I am too.
 Waiter: Great. Would you like any starters?
 Jean: Yes, I would like the olives.
 Michael: I would like the chicken soup.
 Waiter: And for the main course?
 Jean: I would like the crispy fried chicken.
 Michael: I would like the crispy fried chicken too.

Waiter: OK... and what can I get you to drink?
 Michael: We would like a large bottle of sparkling water please.
 Waiter: So, that's one starter of olives, one chicken soup. Two crispy fried chicken mains courses and one large bottle of sparkling water. Is that everything?
 Michael: Yes, thanks.
 Waiter: Ok, perfect.

-----
 Waiter: Are you finished?
 Michael: Yes, thanks.
 Waiter: How was the food?
 Jean: It was very good thank you.
 Waiter: Very good. Would you like a dessert?
 Michael: No, thank you. Can we have the bill please?
 Waiter: Yes, of course. I will be right back.
