

Quiz Game!

- Choose a subject and a difficulty/money level with your team.
- Your teacher will ask you a question. If you ask for a science question with a difficulty/money level of $50, your teacher may ask you: “What is the largest bone in the human body?” If you answer “femur” or “thigh bone” or point to your upper leg and say “this one” you get $50.
- Each team can ask a total of 12 questions (if there are 2 teams), and after that the team with the most money wins.
- You cannot choose the same subject and difficulty/money level twice (for example if the other team chooses a $50 science question, you cannot choose a $50 science question. Use the table below to keep track of which questions have been asked and how much money you have won.
