

Work-life Balance

“Almost everything will work again if you unplug it for a few minutes, including you.”
 — Anne Lamott

 Warm up

- What do you think about the quote?
- Do you ever feel like you are busy all the time, and your to-do list never ends?
- What do you normally do to relax after school/work?
- Do you ever check your phone when you should be relaxing?
- Who do you spend more time with: family, friends, or classmates/colleagues?
- Do you think teenagers and adults today generally have a good work-life balance? Why or why not?
- If you had to choose: better grades/salary, or more free time, what would you pick? Why?

1. Work in pairs/small groups and write down your top 5 tips for a better work-life balance and share them with the class.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.

- Which tip was the most popular in the class?
- Did any group have an unusual or funny tip?
- Which tip do you personally want to try?

2. Match the words to their meanings. You will also hear these words in the video later.

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| a. interruption | 1. Very important, must be done quickly |
| b. boundary | 2. Something that makes you lose concentration |
| c. urgent | 3. Talking to reach an agreement, often about time or conditions |
| d. negotiate | 4. Extreme tiredness and stress from too much work |
| e. burnout | 5. When something stops your focus or activity |
| f. distraction | 6. A limit you set to protect your time or energy |

3. Fill in the blanks with the correct vocabulary from exercise 2.

1. Many students say their phone is their biggest _____ when they try to do homework.
2. Some people don't have clear _____ between work and free time – they answer emails even at midnight.
3. Not every message from your boss/teacher is really _____, but people often feel they must reply immediately.
4. A good skill in life is to _____ more time when you feel the deadline is impossible.
5. Doctors say more and more young people suffer from _____ because of stress at school or work.
6. In one study, families said that a phone call during dinner was the most annoying _____.

4. In pairs/small groups, discuss these questions about the sentences in Exercise 3.

- Which of these sentences feels most true for you?
- Do you think phones are the biggest distraction, or is something else worse?
- Have you ever had to negotiate for more time? Was it successful?
- Why do you think stress from school and work is leading to more burnout today? Is that the only reason, or are there other causes too?

Work-life Balance Quiz

1. You are having dinner with your family/friends when your phone buzzes with a message from your teacher/boss.
 - a) I answer immediately.
 - b) I check quickly but reply later.
 - c) I ignore it until after dinner.

2. How often do you study or work late at night instead of sleeping?
 - a) Almost every night.
 - b) Sometimes.
 - c) Rarely or never.

3. Which of these is your biggest distraction when working or studying?
 - a) My phone or social media.
 - b) Friends/family/colleagues.
 - c) I do not usually get distracted, but sometimes I forget to take breaks.

4. When you are very tired, someone asks you for help. What do you do?
 - a) Say yes, even if I feel exhausted.
 - b) Say yes, but limit the time.
 - c) Say no politely because I need rest.

5. How often do you take real breaks with no phone and no work?
 - a) Almost never.
 - b) Sometimes.
 - c) Every day.

6. You get three big tasks for the same day. How do you react?
 - a) I try to finish everything, even if I feel burnout coming.
 - b) Do the most urgent first and leave the rest for later.
 - c) Ask for more time or accept that I won't finish everything.

7. Which is most important for you?
 - a) Doing well in work or school, even if I feel stressed.
 - b) Doing both work and life, accepting some stress.
 - c) Protecting my health and relationships, even grades/work sometimes suffer.

8. How often do you do something just for fun, such as a hobby, sport, or time with friends?
 - a) Rarely because I do not have time.
 - b) A few times per week.
 - c) Almost every day, but sometimes I put fun before my responsibilities.

9. When you feel very stressed, what is your usual reaction?
 - a) Keep working without a break.
 - b) Take a short break but still check messages.
 - c) Take proper rest to recover, even if it delays work/study.

10. You have a group project at school/work. The tasks can be shared, but you think you will do them better than others. What do you do?
 - a) Do almost everything myself, even if it means extra stress.
 - b) Share some tasks but keep the important ones for me.
 - c) Delegate fairly and trust others to do their part.

5. Add up your points from all 10 questions. How to Score:

a = 1 point b = 2 points c = 3 points

10–16 points 🤔🔥 You may be heading toward burnout. You push yourself too hard and forget to rest. Try setting clearer boundaries and taking real breaks.

17–24 points 😊🏠 You are doing quite well. You usually balance work or study with free time, but sometimes stress or distractions cause problems.

25–30 points 😎🌴 You value rest, fun, and relationships. Be careful not to relax too much or let enjoyment come before responsibility. Balance means work and rest together.

6. In pairs/small groups, discuss.

- Were you surprised by your result? Why or why not?
- Do you agree with what the quiz says about you?
- Which question in the quiz was hardest to answer honestly?
- If you could change one habit, what would it be?

7. Watch the TED Talk “3 Rules for Better Work-Life Balance.”¹ Take notes while you watch and be ready to answer the questions below.

a. What example does the speaker give at the beginning about interruptions during free time?

.....

b. What did tourists remember less of when they had their phones out?

.....

c. How many days of productivity do companies lose each year because of stress and burnout?

.....

d. What personal life moment did the speaker interrupt by texting a client?

.....

¹ https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4c_xYLwOx-g

