

Faces and Parts of the Body

1. Write the face parts in the box below the pictures.

mouth	nose	eye	beard
ear	tongue	hair	teeth

a) tongue

b) ear

c) teeth

d) beard

e) hair

f) eye

g) mouth

h) nose

2. Ask and answer the questions with a partner.

For example: "Do I have blue eyes?"

"Yes, you do" or "No, you don't"

- a) Do I have blue eyes?
- b) Do you have brown eyes?
- c) Do I have black hair?
- d) Do you have white hair?
- e) Do I have red hair?
- f) Do I have a beard?

3. Match the faces with the sentences below.

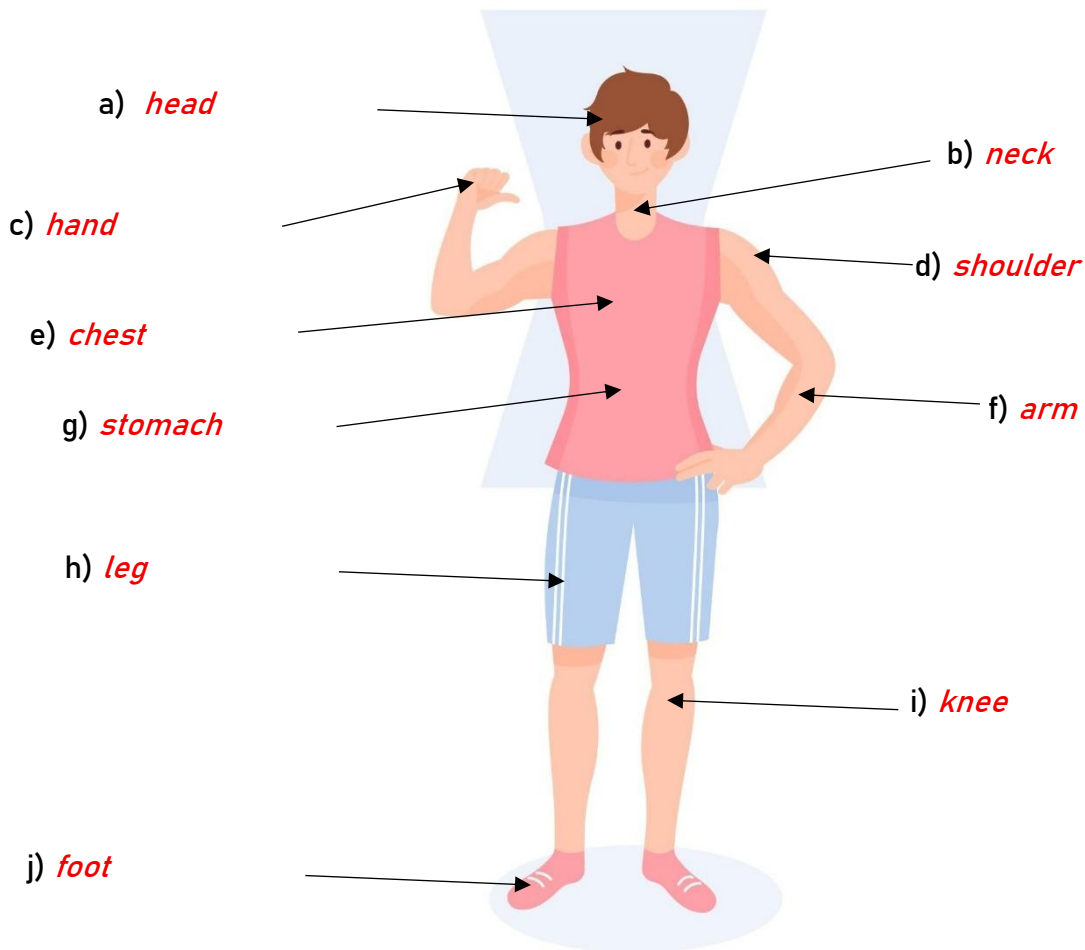

- a) "I have long dark brown hair, and I have a beard." This is person number 6
- b) "I have short dark brown hair and blue eyes." This is person number 4
- c) "I have short light brown hair, and I have glasses." This is person number 1
- d) "I have grey hair, and I have glasses." This is person number 5
- e) "I have short brown hair, a beard, and sunglasses." This is person number 8
- f) "I have a grey beard, and I am bald." This is person number 7
- g) "I have long red hair and big blue eyes." This is person number 3
- h) "I have short blond hair, and I have a beard. I don't have glasses." This is person number 2

4. Write the body parts from the box on the picture below.

leg	shoulder	hand	head	stomach
foot	neck	chest	arm	knee

5. Game: one person must point to one of the body or face parts you have learned today. The first classmate to say the name of the body part wins a point. The first person to have 5 points wins the game.

6. Read the story and circle the correct word.

Tom has blue eyes / ears, a big foot / nose, and a brown beard / shoulder. Every morning, he looks in the mirror and says: "Good morning, Tom!" He brushes his tongue / teeth carefully, they are very white.

After breakfast, Tom puts on his jacket and goes to work. He carries a heavy bag on his right shoulder / knee. At the bus stop, he meets his friend Anna. She waves and says, "Hi, Tom! How are you today?"

"I'm good" says Tom, stretching his arms / chest "Just a bit tired."

At work, Tom fixes bicycles. He uses his hands / neck to fix them, and has to be careful. Sometimes, the bikes fall, and he has to move his foot / stomach fast so they don't hit him.

After work he goes home, he is tired but he feels good. At home, he looks in the mirror and smiles. His ear / beard is messy, and there is some oil on his nose / knee!

He takes a shower, eats dinner, and goes to bed. His arms / legs are tired because he stands up all day, but he feels happy. It was a good and busy day.