

Do you have.....? Present Simple

We use present simple to describe general truths. This means we often use this tense to describe how someone looks.

E.g. I am short. I have brown curly hair and blue eyes. I don't have a moustache. My mother has blonde hair. She also doesn't have a moustache.

 1. Complete the sentences below using have, don't have, has, or doesn't have.

a) I have long hair.

b) She doesn't have tattoos.

c) I don't have glasses.

d) We have white hair.

e) He doesn't have hair.

f) She has a necklace.

 2. Ask your partner a "Do you have...?" question with the words below.

E.g. "Do you have a cat?" "Yes I do / No I don't"

- A dog?
- A brother?
- A swimming pool?
- A tattoo?
- A car?

 3. Read the text below and write the name above the correct person

Renata has short brown hair. She doesn't have glasses.

Kevin has blonde hair. He has a moustache, but he doesn't have a beard.

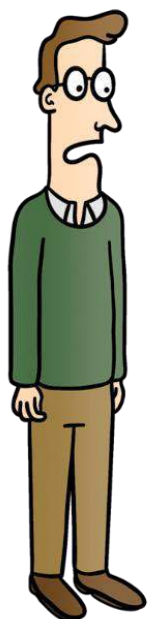

James is bald, and he has glasses.

Randy is tall, and has short brown hair and glasses.

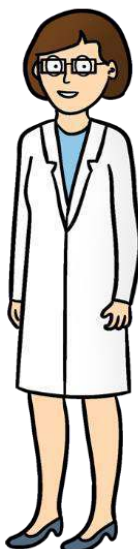

Troy is short. He has a beard and a hat. He also has a gun.

Christine has short brown hair and glasses.

a) Randy

b) Christine

c) James

d) Renata

e) Troy

f) Kevin

4. Make 3 "Does he/she have...?" questions about the characters and ask your partner.

E.g "Does James have blonde hair?" "No he doesn't"

"Does Christine have glasses?" "Yes she does"

Guessing Game

There are 21 photos of people on the next page. Choose a person (do not tell your partner which person!) and ask your partner one question about their person. Then your partner will ask you one question about your person. The first student to guess their partner's person wins! For example:

Student A: "Is it a woman?"

Student B: "Yes she is.....is it a woman?"

Student A: "No, he's a man.... Does she have glasses?"

Student B: "No she doesn't..... does he have tattoos?"

Student A: "Yes he does...Is she Sasha?"

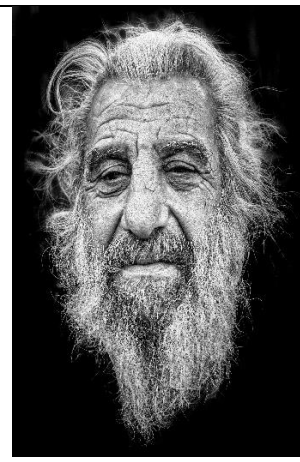

Student B: "Yes she is! Good guess! You win."
